Le Cordon Bleu Veteran Spouses Grant Application

Le Cordon Bleu offers the Le Cordon Bleu Veteran Spouses Grant to assist spouses of Veteran service members to attend a program of study at Le Cordon Bleu. Applicants may be eligible for a grant in the amount of $2,000 to be applied toward direct tuition costs. To be eligible for the Le Cordon Bleu Veteran Spouses Grant, a candidate must be accepted for admission and provide evidence to verify their spouse’s veteran status, such as a DD-214, or other comparable government document, and have submitted the Le Cordon Bleu Veteran Grant Application with supporting documentation.

General Scholarship Rules
1. Qualifying candidates must be spouses of Veterans of the U.S. Military who have a discharge status other than dishonorable.

2. Applications and supporting documentation are due by the end of the add/drop period for the student’s first class (or classes).

3. The grant is applied only towards direct program costs (tuition, books and fees). The Veteran Spouse Grant will not be awarded to the student, in whole or in part, as a cash payment.

4. The grant will be awarded over the length of the program with equal amounts being applied to each payment period until the award is exhausted.

5. This grant is non-transferable and cannot be used in conjunction with any other Le Cordon Bleu Grants or Scholarships.
